For this month's NLG Member Profiles, we sat down with long-time NLG-Mass member and incredible housing justice advocate, Grace Ross.

We recently had the opportunity to meet with Grace Ross to discuss her work with the Massachusetts Alliance Against Predatory Lending (MAAPL). Grace discussed the development of the alliance, goals they started with, how they have evolved, challenges they continue to face, and ways people can help READ MORE

This month's Student Work aims to celebrate the three students who will be honored at our Annual Dinner this year.

We sat down with Annie Guare, Joan Steffen and Kylah Clay, this year's Annual Dinner Student Award winners, to give each honoree an opportunity to talk a little bit about themselves. READ MORE

We also have a Youtube channel. Click Here to watch those interviews and SUBSCRIBE.

Recently, we had a great conversation with Rev. Jo Murphy of UU Mass Action to discuss the work they are doing across Massachusetts.

Rev. Murphy provided an overview of their campaigns and working groups as well as an explanation of the 8th principle and why it is important to the work they do. Click Here to watch that interview and SUBSCRIBE.
